

Marian Anderson Mural - Call to Artists

Project Description:

The City of Danbury seeks to commission an artist or team of artists to create a large-scale mural celebrating the life and legacy of Marian Anderson. The artist(s) must be willing to work with the City Historian and do additional research on Ms. Anderson's achievements on a global and local scale. The City is seeking an installation that represents Ms. Anderson's impact in order to educate and inspire the community. The artist(s) will be asked to cover the existing wall art and replace it with the final artwork. The artist(s) will be chosen by a panel of community representatives and the project investors. The artist(s) will be asked to work on site at 300 Main Street, Danbury, CT on a timeline that will be agreed upon between the artist, City, and property owner. Funding for this installation will be donated by Savings Bank of Danbury and the City of Danbury.

Inspiration for the Project:

Born on February 27, 1897 in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, Marian Anderson began singing at the age of 6. Through years of classical training, Marian became known as one of the greatest classical singers of the twentieth century. The world-renowned contralto began her professional career touring some of the most prestigious concert halls in Europe. Marian Anderson sang for houses of royalty across the continent. Back in the States where most halls had previously banned Marian from performing due to the color of her skin, many American people grew in their support for the iconic singer. These same halls began opening their doors, inviting her to come back to the U.S. and perform. It was in 1936 when Marian was invited to perform at the White House for President Franklin D. Roosevelt and First Lady Eleanor Roosevelt.

Marian Anderson challenged racial barriers in the U.S. with the support of her new friend, Eleanor Roosevelt. In the late 1930's, Marian Anderson was invited to sing in Washington but needed a hall that would fit the crowd she was bound to attract. The Daughters of the American Revolution who owned Constitution Hall told Marian that she could not perform as only white artists were allowed to take the stage. Eleanor, a member of the DAR, sent in a resignation letter and wrote about it in the paper. Even so, the DAR did not back down. The outrage led to a bold idea - an open-air concert at the Lincoln Memorial. With coordination from the White House, Marian sang to 75,000 people on Easter Sunday of 1939.

Marian Anderson's legacy has been honored in a number of ways. She was awarded the Presidential Medal of Freedom in 1963 by John F. Kennedy, the Congressional Gold Medal in 1977, the Kennedy Center Honors in 1978, the National Medal of Arts in 1986, and received a Grammy Lifetime Achievement Award in 1991. Marian was also inducted into the National Women's Hall of Fame in 1973 and her portrait is on a stamp issued by the United States Postal Service on January 27, 2005. Most recently, the Secretary of the Treasury in 2016 announced the redesign of the $5 bill to include events at the Lincoln Memorial featuring Marian Anderson and Martin Luther King Jr.

Marian Anderson is best known to Danburians as a neighbor and friend. Marian lived in our city for over 50 years. She served as a member of the Danbury Music Centre's Board of Directors, who have since named their concert hall in her honor. Her practice studio stands on the grounds of the Danbury Museum and visitors are invited to visit her studio and view an exhibit celebrating Marian Anderson's many accomplishments. The exhibit also showcases many of the costumes Ms. Anderson wore while performing at home and abroad. Though Ms. Anderson passed away in 1993, her legacy has continued to inspire many generations, especially here in Danbury!
